Circuit Court.

The Court adjourned on Thursday evening last until next regular term, which will be the second Monday in November, 1899. On the minute book we find the following matters of interest:

Thos. McGinnis, Sheriff, acknowledged deeds to Anderson D. Lloyd and

Wm. H. Campbell.

Case of E. D. Ball, against Jno. P.

Queensberry, for dower in house, decided in favor of defendant. Case carried to Supreme Court on appeal.

John Cowgal indicted for petty larceny, for stealing some clothing from a car down at the Junction. Plead guilty and sentenced to 10 days in county jail.

In case of State vs. John Bailly, defendant failed to appear and recognizance forfeited.

In case of State against John Howard, charged with robbing Van Hoovers store, at Orrick. Plead guilty and sentenced to penitentiary for two years.

In case of C. T. Garner, adm'r. &c., against Henry Trigg, motion for a new trial overruled, and appeal taken to

Supreme Court.

Thos. McGinnis, Sheriff, presented account for services in the sum of $173.

40, which was allowed by the court.

John W. Sprinkle, Clerk, presented account for $42.95, which was allowed by the court.

John W. Sprinkle, Clerk, makes report of fines collected by him since last settlement, amounting to $41.10, which is filed and approved.

Fine Bull.

At the late Kansas City Stock Sales,

Mr. W. L. Henderson, of this vicinity, bought the fine yearling bull, "Danvers" bred by T. B. Hickman, of Boone county, and raised and sold by Wm. R.

King, of Saline county. "Danvers" is a thoroughbred, was calved June 5th, 1898, and at 11 months old weighed 800 pounds. Mr. Henderson was fortunate in securing such a valuable animal.

New Job Press.

We have just received a New Job

Press, a perfect beauty, and about a dozen fonts of New Job Type. We are now enabled to execute job work, of all kinds, on the shortest notice and in the highest style of art. Give us a trial and be convinced.

The city officers in connection with the committee of ladies appointed at the meeting last week, to raise means for the relief of persons suffering from effects of recent cyclones in Missouri and Kansas, went to work with great earnestness, and in a short time raised the sum of $228.80 in cash. Of this sum a division was made as follows:

Sent to Lee's Summit, $75, to Irvin,

Kansas, $103.80.

The citizens of Richmond, by their promptness in making these contributions, show that they appreciate the kindness of other sections in contributing so largely to their relief last year, when such a terrible calamity came upon us.

The Temperance Meetings, at Vibbard, held by Prof. E. H. Campbell, were interrupted by the rain on Monday night, and will be postponed until his other appointments in the county are filled. On Saturday night and Sunday morning, some 35 took the pledge, among the lot some hard drinkers. At Lawson, during the continuance of Mr.

Campbell's lectures, about 200 took the pledge. At that point the movement was a success in every respect. Mr.

Campbell went then to Knoxville, where he is now holding a series of meetings.

Temperance Celebration.

There will be a grand Temperance

Celebration and Pic Nic on Saturday

July 16th, near Millville, under the management of Messrs. Amos Baister,

Joseph Wild and G. H. Ford. Good music has been secured for the occasion, and a long list of speakers have agreed to deliver addresses. We wish to refer to the celebration again before the day.

All accounts agree that there never was a better prospect for a big corn crop in Ray county at this time of year, than now have, and if we can only have it seasonable from this on there will be no need for poor cattle next winter. The hay crop will be short, but late rains may help it materially. What will hardly be an average yield, but farmers say the quality is excellent.

Oats will be short, but have great
